

10 Praise & Worship Songs You Must Know

October 2006 chosen for lyric integrity, popularity and singability

1. Your Grace Is Enough - Matt Maher

Upbeat, singable, catchy and in E major. Need I say more? Sung by Chris Tomlin, written by Matt Maher.

Found on "Arriving," Chris Tomlin

2. Marvelous Light - Charlie Hall

No longer just a fringe Passion worship leader, Charlie is now known in churches across the country because of this breakout hit.

Found on "Flying into Daybreak," Charlie Hall [and other Passion CDs]

3. Salvation Is Here - Joel Houston

The premier Hillsong United song. Did you know Joel is the son of the founding pastors of Hillsong Church?

Found on "Look to You," Hillsong United [and other Hillsong CDs]

4. My Savior, My God - Aaron Shust

A huge CCM #1 hit for the worship leader of Atlanta's Perimeter Church.

Found on "Anything Worthy Saying," Aaron Shust

5. With All I Am - Ruben Morgan

One of the most touching worship songs I've heard in awhile. Should be titled "Jesus I Believe In You."

Found on "For All You've Done," Hillsong

6. Amazed - Jared Anderson

Haunting and pure, this song is from the Desperation Band.

Found on "Desperation Band : From the Rooftops"

7. Let The Praises Ring - Lincoln Brewster

Super simple, catchy, and, yes! In E major!

Found on "All To You...Live," Lincoln Brewster

8. Enough - Chris Tomlin, Louie Giglio

What an anointed ballad!

Found on "Not to Us," Chris Tomlin

9. You, You Are God - Walker Beach

A good upbeat call to worship.

Found on "Living for You," Gateway Church [VerticalMusic.com]

10. Everlasting God - Brenton Brown

I loved this song when I first heard it on Brenton's CD. Now that Chris Tomlin has done it, watch out! I like Brenton's version better.

Found on "Everlasting God," Brenton Brown

Found on "See the Morning," Chris Tomlin
